Emerson College
Boston, Massachusetts

A Journey's End . . . A Journey's Beginning
Time . . . Time to come with us and find Youth and Time are seasons of the mind
We are summer in our spirit
Fall in our smile
Winter in our yesterdays
And Spring in our possibilities . . .
We are now
And Youth and Time are only
 Seasons of the mind.

As counselor
 and as friend . . .
She has
 Spoken and Listened, Listened and Heard,
 Heard and Understood
And if she reached us only for one brief moment . . .
Helped us through one small tragedy . . .
Laughed or cried with us for one dark afternoon . . .

We grew just a little wiser, just a little older,
just a little better.

For this and much more, we, the Class of nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, dedicate our Emersonian
to

MRS. JEAN JACOBSON

DOES YOUR CHILD
YEARN TO KNOW MORE ABOUT GOD?

YESTERDAY LIFE WAS SUCH AN EASY GAME TO PLAY.

NOW IT SEEMS AS IF WE'RE HERE TO STAY . . .
THE TIME HAS COME TODAY—

FRESHMAN YEAR

Orientation:

signing in filling out dotted lines
pick a course choose a major must have a blue card
yellow card pink card people people all around not a friend to be found
“I wanna go home . . .”
American Chop Suey?!?

Social:

Freshman girls . . . innocent
Freshman boys . . . befuddled
“That’s funny, you don’t look Jewish.”
Parker House Dance . . . Theta Carnival . . .
Queens . . . Mad Ball . . . Six Months and A Day

Hazing:

Jim, where are you?
McCaw and Meisel sharpening their nails
Sophomores Crave the sound
“We love you Sophomores”
Ego trips for all
“Just wait til next year . . .”

Disorganizations:

Choose a President who won’t flunk out
McCabe?
Plan our own ego trips . . .

Educational Mishaps:

Hello grades! Hello Probation.
Hello, Dean of Students . . .
Phonetics . . . Fale’s Civilization (“um”)
Edu. 123—saved by the curve!

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Hazing:

Mistress Katz . . . "You make me vomit!"

Master Field . . . whip

SGA Elections . . . Cohen vs Napal

Guess . . .

SENIOR YEAR

"People are strange when you're a stranger"

count your credits

We don't know anyone any more!

Hey, remember when we . . .

What are you going to do after?

Therapy . . . WABC . . .

Going to be a theatre?

How big is your diamond?

If he/she made "Who's Who" then I should have!

"Oh dear, I missed career day"

What about psychedelic caps and gowns this year?

MOONEYNE JACKSON, AND PAUL JAMPOLSKY.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, GLENN ALTERMAN, do hereby leave the Emerson family just what I came in with; a half smile, just a bit of determination, and a torn suitcase that has never really been anywhere.

I, HARLAN R. BAKER, do hereby leave my standard stage diction to the Speech Department, and my old Necco Wafer candy wrappers to Ceci Hart, Ollie Boston, and Mary Shortkroff.

I, KENNETH BEAUCHENE, do hereby leave the ideas extraneous, and the thoughts not written down . . .

I, PAUL R. BECK, do hereby leave the official Emerson College white elephant, an RCA TK-10 named "Bertha" on the second floor of 130 Beacon Street.

I, LARRY BLANK, do hereby leave WERS all its master keys, as well as all the master keys to the Student Union which everyone has been looking for, for the past year. Duplicates have been made.

I, JOE BOREN, do hereby leave the opportunity for all Emersonians to study under Dr. Zacharis, Mr. Littlefield, and Mr. Marderosian; the happiness I have found in Alpha Pi Theta to all my Brothers; self-confidence to my Brother Hootie because he has all the qualities of a great man; and I take the Theta Queen.

I, JANE ELLEN BRONSTEIN, do hereby leave as little as possible at Emerson; I want to take it with me.

I, RANDOLPH W. BROOKSBANK, do hereby leave to Bruce Behan two more years of a glorious life at Mrs. Desmond's Rest Home, "The Switchboard", and to the Brothers of Phi Alpha Tau many thanks for making my last two years at Emerson the best ever.

I, SHARON BROWN, do hereby leave to President Richard Chapin, the blueprint for the new gymnasium, including the plans for the revolving sauna bath on the top; to William Corbett, Jay Gatsby's silver shirt with a gold tie and a pink suit.

I, WILL CASE, do hereby leave my curve ball to Dickie Pleasants, my hair to Pete Dierks and Coleman C. Bender, and my old Little Richard Albums to Mr. Pettit.

I, GAIL CASWELL, do hereby leave my widely varying "s" echoing wildly through the halls of the Speech Clinic in hopes that it may someday be caught and tamed; also to "100", a kitten, with wishes for many warm and furry nights.

I, MARCY ELLEN COHEN, do hereby leave to Kris Street, because of her loyalty and devotion during a time of need, the right to counsel me in all my future problems (Good Luck Kris!) and one tube of Ultrabrite toothpaste to maintain that everlasting smile.

I, ALAN I. COOPER, do hereby leave the strong influence of Theta and Kappa; to Ken Rosenbaum, the love and brotherhood passed down to me from Bloee; a stack of Junior Prom pictures; an unabridged edition of "How I Lost an Election"; and all my love and thanks to Donna, Marlene and Nancy.

I, MAYNARD CROSSMAN, do hereby leave, my morality to Pete Dierks, my jump shots to Dave Bornstein, six beautiful Frosh to Mr. Buck, a Ph.D. in the art of pocket billiards to Joseph Caputa, and most of all 20 clean tables to Emma.

I, BONNIE CYPEN, do hereby leave Mrs. Roget, a book of her own; Robin, "Eddie My Love"; Toby, shorter skirts; Marsha L., a new pair of legs; Vicki, happiness; Marcia W., Dr. Bruce; Bonnie, Ceil, and all the sisters of KIX memories of Mrs. Beasley, and much happiness and success in the future.

I, BRUCE DEAN, do hereby leave the guides on Copley guided tourbuses, an abstract about Emerson College that tells it like it really is.

I, STAN DEUTSCH, do hereby leave my dear FHBGH to RDGRTNY T. FERNDOCK, for the purpose of BDRLBJ and FLEMBDRELGH, all his live-long ZARBUP. Thanks again RDGRTNY!

I, DEBRA DOUDEN, do hereby leave a Phi Alpha Tau pin to any Zeta who wants it.

I, GEORGE ELLARD, do hereby leave WERS to the next victim, with best wishes, good intentions, innumerable failures, and a semester's supply of spare records to break or throw onto Storrow Drive, as the occasion merits, and last but not least my slightly used bottle of Pepto Bismol.

I, JUDI FICHTNER, do hereby leave Emerson College, eating and sleeping my way to Broadway.

I, ROBERT FINE, do hereby leave the following advice to the undergraduate students, "Don't take life too seriously because you're not about to get out of it alive."

I, DEBORAH FINEBERG, do hereby leave the YMCA to more enthusiastically athletic Emerson girls.

I, JUDITH S. FRIEDMAN, do hereby leave my effervescence, energy, enthusiasm and my "e"nterpretive dancing to six front.

I, INGRID GLUZMAN, do hereby leave memories of hours of worthwhile waiting outside the Theatre Arts Department door; the impossible Peter Pan; the cell; and to Pat, many hours of sleep.

I, TOM GREENBLATT, do hereby leave my sincere thanks to all my Brothers for making this year, "The Year of Tau". I leave with many fine memories of Emerson, Phi Alpha Tau, and Marcey.

I, THOMAS ALEXANDER GUGANIG, do hereby leave with what's left of a mental and physical constitution, that has withstood the last four years, to Larry Kimball.

I, MARTHA HENRY, do hereby leave Hope Stuart my Charlie Brown comic strip; C&D Realty, and a can opener.

I, HELAINE G. HURWITZ, do hereby leave all my candles burning; both ends at once.

I, HENI HYMAN, would not leave this place a thing.

I, MOONYENE JACKSON, do hereby leave my Afro to all future Black Students, wear it with pride.

I, JAN JACOBS, do hereby leave a quad and four years of Emerson College for Greener pastures.

I, GEORGE B. KARFIOL, do hereby leave all the ping-pong balls that I used at the Union, so as to keep up the school's fine reputation in the sport.

I, SHERRY KATZ, do hereby leave Emerson College this sagacious, seminiferous, sedate, sanctimonious, supercilious, surreptitious, inspirational, sentimental conceit: "Be kind to animals."

I, WILLIAM KLOPER, do hereby leave the Dean of Students office all ten volumes of my new book The Emerson College Catalogue Supplement on Student Affairs; Mr. Pettit, my vocal chords in "phamaldrihide" to show off to the Freshman Chorus members, and the cross-country team, hope for an undefeated season next year—even if we do run against Radcliff, Fisher, Katy Gibbs and the YMCA.

I, SUE KOHN, do hereby leave my neat room in 100 to Randy, my red booties to Susan Fern, my matches to Queen Carla, therapy to Cathy, the phone to those on six rear who died in vain waiting for calls, and all my courses to future freshmen.

I, DIANA LEKUS, do hereby leave to Dr. James R. Randall a podium and a personally autographed picture of Albert Schweitzer; to Dr. Lloyd J. Lanich my notes from History of the Theatre and a complete set of plays by Eugene O'Neill.

I, LAWRENCE H. LENTZ, do hereby leave all the S.G.A. financial worries to Lucy Jones to try to figure out, and to Dr. Amato and Dennis Humphrey, one small, but very busy A-V Department. I leave with many memories and experiences of E.C. and her "family", but most of all I hope to leave with Lauren.

I, AL LEONE, do hereby leave my autographed copy of "Mama Leone's Cooking Hints" to the Emerson College Library; a lot of fond memories for all the new freshmen to share; and a big thank you to Phi Alpha Tau.

I, ARTHUR A. LEVINE, do hereby leave one book that everyone can find in the Abbot Memorial Library: a warning to my roommates, Ricky and Doug, that they're on their own now; and to Daddy, a wealthy sick friend.

I, HARRIET LIFSHOTZ, do hereby leave Mr. McAllister the gun that killed Bonnie Parker, and to the Education Department, an experimental school to aid in student teaching difficulties.

I, ARDENE F. LYONS, do hereby leave a round trip Allegheny Airlines ticket from Boston to Philly to any girl who wants a jet-set romance.

I, WILLIAM MICHAEL MAHER, do hereby leave two pair of worn out dancing shoes to Mr. Albert Pessio and Mr. Arthur Perry; the Emerson College Educational Dance Company to Emerson College and 442 worn out toothbrushes to the Brothers of Tau and Ginny Wheeler.

I, MANDY MANN, do hereby leave exactly as I came in: short, skinny and broke—and my love to Robert who's made it all worthwhile.

I, DEBRA MATTLER, do hereby leave, educational incompetency forever, I hope!; love to all my dedicated teachers; a typewriter to the Broadcasting Department, and a chair for the future proctors of 100 Beacon Street.

I, ALAN MERSON, do hereby leave, one cheeseburger to Emma, a famous walk, a refusal for the administration to sell the field house at M.I.T., and to my one and only, everything that I can possibly leave in this beautiful college.

I, MICHAEL MOLOVINSKY, do hereby leave with Patti.

I, PATRICIA MOLOVINSKY, do hereby leave with Michael.

I, PAT MORRISSEY, do hereby leave my homebrew in the cellar and creme de menthe pie in the 150 Beacon icebox; a tulip to a wild Italian Rose; and a forever special place in my heart to the Zeta Phi Eta sisterhood: I take with me a Hampshire Housefull of "unique" presents; memories of the greatest "babes" and "blazers, patches and pins" in the world; a deep love for Emerson people . . . and one last thing, "Bye, fellas!"

I, DELLA MOSER, do hereby leave all the charts I have made or ever will make to the Theatre Arts Department.

I, DEBBIE MURPHY, do hereby leave my broken car and the 603 doorknob to Lee Schofield; my appetite to Roslyn Cohn; and the bathroom at 7:30 A.M. to Phyllis Cosloy.

I, FRANK NAPAI, do hereby leave my brothers all the love they deserve; Dr. Zacharis, Mr. Marderosian, and Mr. Littlefield, a note of thanks; Mr. Nicole, my wine bottle; and Pickle a great future.

I, JANE NEWMAN, do hereby leave to Emerson College, a campus, a dorm quad, a gym and a library; a copy of my father's latest study, my mother's first book, my tight throat, New York regionalism and love to Mr. Crannell and Mr. Hollingworth.

I, LOUIS NEWMAN, do hereby leave my infamous looks to Barry Freedman, a warm, bare, spot on the front wall of 130 to anyone who wants it, my bad jokes to anyone who will take them, and to my brothers of Alpha Pi Theta one truly unique and unforgettable experience.

I, SURENNA ORFORD, do hereby leave to the Emerson dining hall a cookbook—"365 Ways to Cook Nauseating Meals Without Even Trying"; and to all students forced to eat there, a full year's supply of bicarbonate of soda, and my utmost sympathy.

I, RICHARD K. POOLE, do hereby leave a small fortune in dimes to the Beacon Street parking meters. God Bless the Hub!!

I, RICHARD DAVID RAPITI, do hereby leave the Golden-Bound Volume of Gossip willed to me by Charlie Rosen to Steve Aronowitz, knowing that he will find it very beneficial . . . to Mrs. Desmond one used plug and a book on "Telephone Etiquette" and to Emerson College—the name of "Pucky", symbolizing four years of friendships and cherished memories.

I, ELLEN RESNIKOFF, do hereby leave the "sneeze" in "Resnisneeze" to the Brothers of Phi Alpha Tau, in hopes that it will blow their minds and help them to keep up the fine work they have done for Emerson.

I, RIKI RITTER, do hereby leave Susie Turco in search of our tradition and to the girls of 86 Marlborough my sanity and a promise for next November.

I, BILL ROBINSON, do hereby leave Emerson College and all my New England Resistance friends in the broadcasting department with the thought that we have to "face the music" sometime. You can't run forever—join the establishment!!

I, CAROL ROSTON, do hereby leave a swimming pool to Mandy Mann and much love to the sisters of Kappa Gamma Chi.

I, MARCEY J. RUBIN, do hereby leave my joy, excitement and love for Zeta Phi Eta to the greatest sisters in the world, a giggle to the wonderful guys of Phi Alpha Tau, and gratitude to Emerson College for giving me the cherished memories of four years.

I, LAUREL F. SANFORD, do hereby leave my fat behind.

I, ANTOINETTE SARNO, do hereby leave "A Tear and A Smile."

I, ROGER SHAPIRO, do hereby leave one gigantic Excedrin Headache to any Emersonian who so desires it!

I, MARK SIDWEBER, do hereby leave to whomever wants it, Zales Jewelers, America's largest diamond merchants with over 800 stores across the United States in 49 states and expanding rapidly, where everyday Zales prices are salesprices.

I, JUDY SIGLER, do hereby leave my sincere hope that the tremendous potential of the broadcasting department shall one day be reached.

I, DAVID SITEK, do hereby leave to the Speech Department three 19th Century Villains, and to Mr. Crannell "The Graduate School Blues."

I, JON J. STIERWALT, do hereby leave Judy to Coop; a greek born under the same star as an Italian; a mid-nite trip to P.R.; the greatest bunch of guys God has ever created—my brothers; an undeserving grade from Mamma, a friend from Hollywood; dreams I've shared with Ronnie soon to become reality; and part of my heart.

I, THOMAS SUTLIFFE, do hereby leave my masculine body, fair hair and virginity to all future brothers of Phi Alpha Tau Fraternity!

I, TOM TENNANT, do hereby leave a capable basketball "pivot" man to Mike Bolger, a Chelsea sour to Phi Alpha Tau's "Big Bidness" Executive Board, and a list of my "quickie dates" to the sisters of Zeta Phi Eta.

I, MARION JOAN WACHTEL, do hereby leave to Renee Houle, one Moose, Phi Mu, and a lot of happy memories as private secretaries to the Lamb and the Bull.

I, WENDY L. WAIFE, do hereby leave 271, 100, and 190 Beacon Street for Urban Redevelopment, my spoolies, "chocolate," "traumas," and love to M. Goodbody, Legwoman, "Tobless" and "Vickless" and all my wonderful Kappa sisters; and I leave E.C. for G.E.M.

I, BURTT E. WARREN III, do hereby leave my friends the endless joy, frustration, happiness, and experience and love we have tasted in our relationships—AMEN.

I, JANICE WASSERMAN, do hereby leave my proctorship to anyone who can get the doors closed at night, and every fountain at Emerson College to Susan Borks.

I, JULIET WYBRANTS, do hereby leave Love.

I, JOAN ELLEN YESELSON, do hereby leave short weeks, longest weekends, creekly clinic steps, and dear and good friends who will follow.

I, ROBERT ZUBATSKY, do hereby leave my sunglasses to all the teachers who thought I was cheating, and my camera to the next photography editor, hoping he can also make Newsweek Magazine.

Signed and Sealed, January first, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine.

CLASS OF '71

The Sophomore Class this year presented Emerson College with a new and unique Hazing Program. This program kicked off the fun and excitement that goes with being a Sophomore.

The most exciting social event of the Class of 1971 was their fun-filled weekend in February—Winter Weekend.

The Sophomore Class, under the leadership of Carl Zukroff, is a class with overflowing enthusiasm and participation in the social and Academic life of Emerson College.

Row 1: N. Smales, G. Lorber, L. Ellenberg, B. Rosenthal, Vice-President; S. Ostrow, President; M. Yudin, Treasurer; D. Berger, N. Gollinger, S. Rendall, S. Baker, F. Bach. Row 2: J. Pichnarcik, J. Treengoross, S. Cory, M. Kelman, M. Barnes, N. Rubinstein, J. Stellefson.

The Freshman Class are fledglings in the workings of the school and its organization. The selection of class officers is therefore one of the most important decisions a class makes during the year. The class officers are assigned their positions for the purpose of organizing and guiding their class and to represent the ideas and desires of every class member.

The Freshman Class strives to become an efficient working part of the Emerson Family.

Activities

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association is the most vital and integral part of all Emerson activities. Its purpose is to serve the student body as a liaison between the student and the Administration. SGA plans and coordinates Freshman Orientation, sets up the students activities calendar, and allocates funds to student organizations. This year, under the able leadership of Frank Napal, the student-faculty liaison was strengthened and the Emerson student body was heard.

REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY

ASSOCIATE AID TO SPEECH THERAPY

Row 1: E. Werner, W. Waife, C. Roston. Row 2: F. Napal, J. Stierwalt, A. Cooper.

In existence now for three years, AAST functions in two ways: to give service that meets the needs of the Robbins Speech and Hearing Center and, to inspire interest among the student body to become future members of the parent organization, Aid to Speech Therapy, after graduation.

BERKELEY BEACON

With a desire to serve and inform the College, the Berkeley Beacon this year took a step forward. Under the leadership of Editor Paul Jampolsky, new and exciting innovations in the newspaper were born. This year the publication not only kept the student body aware of Inter-College news, it branched out and touched the political, social, and economic news of interest to the mature and growing college student.

BOOSTER CLUB

Without the Booster Club, the Emerson students would not be aware of upcoming College athletic events. Its purpose is to create greater awareness of athletics among the students. Our rapidly growing Athletic Department this year kept the Club working very hard.

E.B.O.N.I.

The struggle of the Black people throughout the world is to overthrow political, economic, educational, and social oppression. Black Power is the war they wage in order to once again regain control over their minds and lives.

Black students on campus' all over the country are uniting in the Afro-American Liberation struggle; seeking to be a viable instrument through which all brothers and sisters in the communities as well as on the campus, can speak. "OUR THEME—Undying love for our brothers. OUR GOAL—Peace and Power for all Black People."

EBONI is Emerson's Afro-American Organization.

FORENSICS

Row 1: D. Kimball, Treasurer; M. Judkins, Secretary; J. Boren, President; G. Griffin. Row 2: P. Meade, D. Kamin, F. Napal, S. Myers.

In 1892, Emerson College met Boston University in one of the first intercollegiate debates in the United States. Exactly 76 years later, the Class of '69 continued the tradition as Frank Napal and Joe Boren won four debates at Boston University and subsequently brought home a first place speaker trophy.

The Forensic Society is long in tradition, a tradition that they hope to continue.

GOLD KEY

Row 1: S. Long, T. Rudkin, G. Griffin, D. Mattler, Secretary; J. Jacobs, President; D. Neigher, Treasurer; M. Greenberg, Parliamentarian; M. Hoodkiss, T. Ertischek. Row 2: G. A. Wolman, D. Ludwig, R. Silverman, J. Bronstein, R. SaFire, S. Cohen, P. Morrissey, L. Slavetsky, A. Steiner, L. Orabone, B. Cutler, D. MacArthur, M. Cohen. Row 3: A. Levine, B. Dean, K. MacKesson, B. Pieper, D. Sitek, A. Farnum, C. Zukroff, M. Sullivan, M. Glaser.

Students who have maintained a high academic average while displaying an interest in the College through their extra-curricular activities, are inducted as members into the Gold Key Society. This is Emerson's Honor Society.

Gold Key members assist in Freshman Orientation, Alumni Weekend, Parent's Weekend, and Commencement.

HILLEL

Row 1: I. Werner, D. Neigher, President; J. Friedman, Secretary; M. Glaser, Treasurer; R. Pines, Vice-President; H. Levine. Row 2: E. Schreiber, R. Shapiro, W. Klover, C. Munster, D. Arbetman, A. Levine.

The Emerson Hillel Group functions under the Counselorship of the Hillel Foundation at Boston University. The aim of Hillel is to inspire love of Jewish learning and spirit in all persons.

INTER-FAITH

Sitting: M. Judkins, President. Standing: T. Sutcliffe, D. Neigher, Vice-President.

The Inter-Faith Council was established in order to bring about better understanding between the three religious organizations at Emerson. The Council coordinates all activities between the three religious organizations and serves as a clearing house for all problems or questions that might arise.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS SOCIETY

Row 1: E. Werner, T. Sutcliffe, B. Warren, President; D. Neigher, J. Ginsburg. Row 2: C. Munster, A. Leone, Mrs. Mode, J. Bobrow, D. Arbetman, A. Levine.

The International Relations Society serves the Emerson family by acquainting the student body with international affairs, international ideology, and international cultures. Each year the Society participates in the United Nations Model Assembly.

M.E.S.A.

Row 1: Mr. L. Riendeau, Advisor; S. Murphy, Secretary; M. Kaufman, Treasurer; R. Friedler, President. Row 2: A. Rosett, J. Friedman, W. Merryman, S. Kates, H. Lifshotz. Row 3: M. Glaser, W. Kloper, D. Arbetman, A. Levine, R. Sosny.

M.E.S.A. is a student organization designed to help and guide those students planning a career as teachers.

NEWMAN CLUB

Row 1: P. Mitchell, S. White, P. Morrissey, Secretary-Treasurer; M. Judkins, President; T. Gunganig, Vice-President; P. Sullivan. Row 2: J. Lynch, P. Bowe, P. Beck, B. Carey, C. Munster, G. LaFleur, S. Murphy.

Keeping Roman Catholic students in Colleges and Universities throughout the country is the goal of Newman Apostolate. True Christian love plays the most vital part in the Club's activity.

PERSPECTUS MAGAZINE

Row 1: E. Thierry, Staff Artist; M. Bartfield, Editor-in-Chief; J. Rose, S. White. Row 2: M. Gale, M. Sidweber, Mr. L. Holcomb, Faculty Advisor; C. Munster, M. Messinger, Photographer.

Perspectus Magazine is the project of Mr. Holcomb's Journalism Practicum class. The journalism students write, edit, and distribute the magazine themselves.

SAILING CLUB

Row 1: E. Baron, M. Sullivan, A. Leone, Treasurer; M. Messinger, Commodore; Mrs. Mode, Mr. Phillips, Faculty Advisor; L. Lentz, Co-Commodore; L. Stiller, J. McSorley, K. Street. Row 2: R. Foley, T. Cannon, J. Reed, R. Kuzminski, J. Nordly, E. Werner, S. Wallman, J. Ginsburg, P. Sullivan, R. Benok, S. Lust, P. Beck, S. Corey. Row 3: J. Glaserow, W. Kloper, G. Grossman, E. Malm, D. Welsh, C. Munster, A. Levine, T. Sutcliffe, D. Arbetman, P. Reinhard.

The Emerson College Sailing Club has long been one of the largest and most popular organizations in the College. The club provides its members with sailing instruction and many exciting races. The "fleet" of the club is comprised of two fiberglass Fins, six Checkmate sloops, and a Boston Whaler.

SCRIBE

Row 1: H. L. Becker, Art Editor; M. Judkins, Secretary-Treasurer; J. Davis, Editor-in-Chief; M. Auerbach, Secretary. Row 2: N. Sugarman, G. Merritt, T. Lux, J. Newman, G. LaFleur.

Scribe is Emerson's Literary Magazine. Its aim: "... To present a well-balanced cross-section of articles, stories, poems, and sketches ..." Any student is eligible to submit his writings or art-work to the magazine. This year's Scribe was the best received and most popular issue so far.

SOCIAL SERVICE

*Row 1: D. Arbetman, Vice-President; S. White, H. Lifshotz, Founder; A. Levine, Treasurer.
Row 2: E. Werner, S. Murphy, C. Munster, M. Werboff, M. Kaufman.*

Founded last year by Harriet Lifshotz, an Emerson student, the Social Service Committee is a volunteer tutoring organization. The function of the committee is to provide academic help to those who need it. In doing so they not only help others but also grow in personal fulfillment by learning about people and problems.

SPEECH CHOIR

Row 1: Miss Matthews, Director; Mrs. Mode, C. Bures, M. Glaser, Treasurer; R. Valente, Secretary; A. Farnum, President; Miss Westervelt, Director. Row 2: S. Turco, A. Lyons, E. Vassos, S. Cohen, P. Bowe, V. Bross, D. Moser, S. Gulesserian. Row 3: C. Harris, C. Neff, L. Roach, M. Jordan, S. Dunne, J. Sonion.

The Emerson College Speech Choir has delighted audiences since it first began. The Choir can be found entertaining at many various events throughout the college—Christmas and Spring Convocations, Founder's Day Weekend.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Row 1: V. Bross, R. Brooksbank, Treasurer; P. Stanley. Row 2: K. Webster, T. Tennent, D. Shaw, R. Houle.

Formed to interest Protestant students in their faith, the Student Christian Association helps its members build and strengthen brotherhood by working and worshipping together.

Row 1: R. Reed, S. Deutsch, E. Resnikoff, Station Manager; R. Hillman, D. Wachs. Row 2: D. J. Diomides, R. Fine, S. Boyd, C. Gray, D. Hnatio.

WERS-TV is the closed circuit television station of Emerson College. With the slogan "Student Experience First", student directors and all members of the television practicum class, are given the opportunity to direct every type of show offered. Discussion panels, game shows, news, weather, sports, and "masterpieces" were all a part of the programming schedule this year.

Row 1: M. Messinger, J. Goodman, C. Cominos, J. Hyman, E. Baron. Row 2: Mr. Peckham, Advisor and Coach; B. Warren, A. Cameron, G. Karfiol, D. Bornstein, M. Gale.

Varsity Club

The background of the entire cover is a vibrant red color, overlaid with a dense, repeating pattern of small, stylized floral or leaf-like motifs in a slightly darker shade of red. The pattern is uniform and covers the entire surface.

Fraternities AND Sororities

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Row 1: T. Greenblatt, Vice-President; R. Leonard, President; J. Boren, Secretary. Row 2: T. Sutcliffe, R. Laver, K. Sinhart, Treasurer; L. Newman.

The Inter-Fraternity Council has the responsibility of providing for good communication between the campus fraternities. It consists of the president and a representative of each of the four fraternities.

One of the main functions of I.F.C. is the coordination of pledge periods, eligibility requirements for pledging, and maintenance of academic standards during pledging.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

*Row 1: C. Roston, Vice-President; M. Rubin, President.
Row 2: R. Silverman, B. Carey, P. Stanley, Secretary.*

Serving the best interests of Emerson and the College sororities at all times, is the purpose of the Pan-Hellenic Council. The President from each sorority serves as an officer in annual rotation. The Executive Council is comprised of these officers and a rush representative from each sorority.

The Executive Council serves as a clearing house which coordinates all rules for rushing. Each sorority determines the length of its pledge period and the activities that take place.

ALPHA PI THETA

A Fraternal Organization for brotherhood and social involvement, Alpha Pi Theta is noted for producing wholesome brotherhood and a fun-filled social atmosphere among many outstanding Emerson students.

"Theta" draws its brothers from diversified backgrounds. A Gold Brick, a Green Blazer, and a Straw Hat starts the Theta brother off on an exciting adventure in brotherhood.

KAPPA GAMMA CHI

Row 1: R. Bishop, H. Rosenfield, M. Hoodkiss, D. Moser. Row 2: J. Fichtner, M. Greenberg, Treasurer; W. Waife, Recording Secretary; C. Roston, M. Lemerise, President; S. Hertzberg, B. Cypen. Row 3: T. Blumenfeld, G. A. Wolman, Vice-President; A. Berliner, H. Horowitz, L. Wachenheim, D. Ludwig, G. Metzger, H. Straka, M. Weill, L. Kozen, J. Biller. Row 4: E. Werner, V. Norris, J. Ginsburg, L. Shuman, C. Stamler, M. Robbins, M. Amenta, D. Boyd, Corresponding Secretary; L. Hendel.

The Kappa Gamma Chi Sorority sets its goals on the development of ideal womanhood through love, loyalty, trust, and harmony. Kappa considers this goal as it's strongest foundation. The sisters of the sorority live in their own house on Beacon Street—a house where the door is open to all—a place of warmth, love, and true sisterhood.

PHI ALPHA TAU

Row 1: R. Rapiti, D. Alexander, M. Messinger, Treasurer; D. Arbetman, Recording Secretary; T. Greenblatt, President; T. Sutcliffe, Vice-President; R. Brooksbank, Corresponding Secretary; T. Tennant, P. Beck. Row 2: Mr. James Contis, Advisor; T. Smith, E. Matthews, I. Goldstone, L. Roach, A. Leone, L. Tinkoff, A. Levine, J. Gilgun, H. Comstock. Row 3: E. Baron, R. Shapiro, M. Werboff, R. Jones, L. Lentz, W. Maher, A. Saxton, B. Behan, M. Applebaum. Not Pictured: P. Cleveland, D. deMesquita, S. Aronowitz, J. Byer.

Phi Alpha Tau is a national professional communicative arts fraternity that has existed at Emerson for 67 years. Tau pursues its goal of brotherhood through sponsoring many events that serve the community. Perhaps the best known service of Phi Alpha Tau is the Joseph Ponnor Award, which this year was presented to Speaker John W. McCormack on December 15, 1968.

HONORARY '12

PHI MU GAMMA

Row 1: M. Cohen, Vice-President; P. Stanley, President; M. Fleck, Treasurer. Row 2: R. Houle, R. Silverman, P. Bertsch, D. Brooks, J. Jacobs.

Phi Mu Gamma, founded at Emerson in 1930, is an International Fine Arts Sorority whose goal is to instill loyalty among its members and to cultivate mental and artistic development. This year the Sisters enjoyed a new home on Beacon Street which was the center of their many activities.

The sisters of Phi Mu Gamma want to wish all graduating seniors the best of luck for the future.

RHO DELTA OMEGA

Row 1: P. Steiner, Vice-President; R. Leonard, President; M. Sidweber, Treasurer; D. Maturi, Secretary. Row 2: G. Pomeroy, P. Gaines, D. Berman, D. Archer. Not Pictured: C. Ally, G. Girand, G. Woods.

Founded in 1948, Rho Delta Omega is a social fraternity. The embodiment of Rho Delta Omega's ideals is the serving of mankind by the promotion of the concept of brotherhood. The highlight of the Rho Delt social year is the annual Dream Girl Ball which is held in November each year.

ZETA PHI ETA

Row 1: M. Judkins, M. Rubin, President; P. Morrissey, Vice-President; J. Cover. Row 2: D. Douden, L. Sanford, Corresponding Secretary; B. Casey, Treasurer; M. Halpern, R. Valente, Recording Secretary.

With pride . . .
 The Alpha Chapter of Zeta Phi Eta, the oldest national professional Sorority for women in the Speech Arts and Sciences, continues its tradition service to Emerson . . .
 service to the community . . .
 and dedication to the Speech Field.

ALPHA EPSILON RHO

Alpha Epsilon Rho is the national honorary broadcasting fraternity which boasts chapters in thirty-five colleges and universities that offer majors in Broadcasting. The organization fosters professionalism and leadership in the broadcasting areas and emphasizes creative participation and good scholarship.

Row 1: J. Burger, P. Stanley, Secretary; R. Leonard, President; H. Baker, Treasurer; C. Hart.
Row 2: J. Hyman, M. Shortkroff, M. Wheeler, J. Truncer, O. Boston, H. Feuerstein.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

A National honorary dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega is the largest national college organization in any departmental field. Founded 44 years ago, Alpha Psi Omega now has a total of 50,000 members in 380 chapters. The fraternity is comprised of students who participate in productions and maintain a high academic average.

Row 1: S. Weiser, W. Waife, H. Hurwitz, Treasurer; J. Jacobs, Vice-President; D. Mattler, Secretary; J. Newman, M. Jackson. Row 2: H. Hyman, M. Rubin, M. Fleck, G. Metzker, J. Yesselson, G. SIGMA ALPHA ETA

D. Mattler, Recording Secretary; J. Newman, Corresponding Secretary; J. Stackhouse, President; J. Jacobs, Vice-President; H. Hurwitz, Treasurer; I. Gluzman, Program Chairman.

Sigma Alpha Eta is a national organization composed of more than 100 chapters. It is a professional organization devoted to furthering the interests and knowledge of persons in the field of Speech Pathology and Audiology. The organization is open to anyone interested in Speech and hearing.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA

Alpha Kappa Alpha is the first Black Sorority ever established in the United States. Its chief aim is "service to all mankind" and in implementing this ideal, AKA has established several program targets: Job Opportunity and Employment for Youth, Scholarships, Training Undergraduates for Leadership, Voter Education and First Class Citizenship. Epsilon Chapter, established in Boston in 1913 has been successful in attaining these ideals.

CHEERLEADERS

Gail Ann Wolman, Ellen Krensis, Tommye Gori, Marcia Weill, Renee SaFire, Naomi Blank, Bo-Captain: Toni Sherman, Co-Captain.

BASEBALL

Row 1: E. Matthews, W. Case, Coach; C. Buck, Captain; D. Taylor. Row 2: D. Alexander, E. Madej, D. Branco, G. Karfiol, G. Ogle, J. Goodman.

BASKETBALL

Row 1: M. Crossman, D. Bornstein, Co-Captain; J. Goodman. Row 2: E. Kerwin, F. Friedman, D. Sandler, J. Kaplan, L. Kornblau, Manager. Not Pictured: P. Dierks, Co-Captain; M. Grudzinsky, L. Peterson, P. Maravich.

This year's Basketball Team is a much-improved band of athletes. One of the most important reasons for their success is the availability of better facilities and the opportunities to hold more practice sessions.

This year's team is paced by high scoring Lou Peterson, Peter Dierks, and Dave Bornstein. Co-Captain Dierks feels that the team will continue to show improvement.

CROSS COUNTRY

Row 1: A. Cameron, B. Warren, Captain; Mr. Peckham, T. Sutcliffe. Row 2: J. Lydon, B. Pieper, R. Hood, L. Kornblau, M. Gale.

The Cross-Country team is in its fourth year at Emerson College and every year it's record improves. Under the able guidance of coach James Peckham, the team looks forward to next season with hopes for the best year ever.

HOCKEY

Row 1: J. Glasserow, R. Pleasants, Assistant Captain: P. O'Brian, Captain: W. Eaton, C. Icaza. Row 2: D. Taylor, E. Madej, M. Hulser, F. Faust, D. Berman. Not Pictured: D. Marlowe, L. Richardson, Coach Blair Richardson, B. Stewart, J. Conk, S. Martin, R. Gilbert.

This year the Hockey Team played eight games losing a few more than they won. Despite this, the team is much improved over last year and so is their competition. This season they beat Belknap College convincingly while losing to Gordon College twice and a tough Burdett team once.

This year's team was led by Captain Peter O'Brian and Dick Pleasants plus returning lettermen Steve Martin, Bill Auerbach-Stuart, and newcomers Ned Bunnell and Bill Eaton. Coach Blair Richardson, the player-coach from Nova Scotia, has aroused enthusiasm and dedication among the players. The future of Emerson Hockey looks promising.

SAILING TEAM

Row 1: K. Street, Mrs. Jones, M. Messinger, Captain: S. Long, Captain: J. McSorley. Row 2: Mr. Phillips, J. Glasserow, R. Foley, M. Vanni, S. Lust, P. Reinhard.

The Emerson College Racing Team is a member of the New England Inter-Collegiate Sailing Association. Our team participates in regattas throughout New England. Both men and women comprise the sailing team which each Spring and Fall bring both honors and excitement to one of Emerson's most popular sports.

WRESTLING

Row 1: R. Leonard, Captain; Mr. Peckham, Coach; D. Maturi. Row 2: J. Hyman, G. Ogle, B. Pieper, C. O'Callahan, M. Connor. Not Pictured: S. Aaronson, D. Archer, C. Cominos, J. Girand.

Emerson's Wrestling Team is one of the most successful and respected teams in the College. Under the able leadership of Coach Peckham, the men of the Wrestling Team have developed into a powerful league of sportsmen.

The Emerson team is a member of the New England Intercollegiate Wrestling Association and competes with such schools as Boston University, Holy Cross, and Brandeis.
